ANNUAL DUTIES #GOODBUSINESS COMPETITION

RULES

1. The BIPA Annual Duty 2021 competition is open to all registered entities (close corporations and companies) that are paid up in terms of their annual duties. For an entity to qualify to enter, it must have been registered with BIPA for a period of no less than 12 months by 15 December 2021. Such an entity must also be paid up with its annual duties for the period 2012-2021, inclusive of its 2020/21 financial year, by 15 December 2021.
2. The competition is not open to entities that have any BIPA staff member as a shareholder, director or member.
3. Only one entry per registered entity
4. Only members or shareholders of the winning registered entity may collect the winning prize. A valid NBC TV license and a certified copy of a Namibian identity document will be required; and validation will be done against the business profile.
5. By entering the competition, members of the winning entity consent to being photographed and to appear in the media.
6. The prize of a 43" HiSense Smart TV will be deemed as full and final award in the competition and the winning entities or its members may not lay any other claim against BIPA.
7. Participants should be 18 years or older.
8. Prizes are not redeemable for cash.
9. Prizes cannot be reclaimed from BIPA, should the item be stolen or damaged, once ownership has been transferred from BIPA to the winner.
10. Any material misrepresentation may cause a registered entity to be disqualified from the competition.
